Week	ATP code	What must be covered
Week 1	MKRN	Introduce Topic 5, colonial expansion after 1750. Teach Britain taking control of the Cape: the indigenous population driven out or drawn into the labour force, and the end of the slave trade in 1807 and of slavery in 1834.
Week 2	MKX6	Teach expanding frontiers and trade, the Boer response to British control by trekking into the interior, and Xhosa responses of co-operation and conflict, including the cattle killing. Learners answer source-based questions.
Week 3	YPK3	Teach the Zulu kingdom and the colony of Natal through one subtopic, school chooses one: indentured Indian labour for sugar, railways and coal, or the Anglo-Zulu War. Learners plan an essay on the subtopic.
Week 4	D737	Teach co-operation and conflict on the Highveld: the Boer republics and the Basotho kingdom under Moshoeshoe. Task 5: source-based or essay task on transformation (50 marks). Learners write the task.
Week 5	NP7L	Introduce Topic 6, the South African War and Union. Teach mining capitalism in brief: the influx of capital, the growth of mining companies, the stock exchange and new technologies. Learners work with sources.
Week 6	4F6M	Teach the emergence of classes, capitalists, the middle class and workers, and the creation of a racially divided industrial labour force through job reservation and low black wages. Learners answer source-based questions.
Week 7	7NWP	Teach the South African War 1899 to 1902: South Africa on the eve of the war, Britain's growing interest after the discovery of minerals, and the struggle for control of the goldfields. Learners work with sources on the war.
Week 8	DEJN	Teach the end of the war and the peace negotiations, and the roles and experiences of women and of black South Africans in the war. Learners write an essay on the South African War.
Week 9	9N6M	Teach a revision of source-based questions: analysing sources, level 1, 2 and 3 questions and paragraph writing, and of essay writing: the question, a line of argument and a conclusion. Learners practise past questions.
Week 10	H76H	Task 6: Standardised Test 2 (100 marks, 2 hours). Section A source-based questions 1 and 2 and Section B essay questions 3 and 4 on the background to the South African War and the war of 1899 to 1902. Learners write the test.
Week 11	N76A	Learners complete Standardised Test 2 (Task 6, 100 marks) and consolidate the term's work on colonial expansion after 1750 and the South African War and Union.
