Week	ATP code	What must be covered
Week 1	LC7H	Introduce Topic 7, the Native Land Act of 1913. Teach the terms of the Act and its economic impact on black South Africans. Learners work with sources on the Act.
Week 2	YEJ7	Teach the social impact of the Native Land Act and the response of Sol Plaatje. Learners answer source-based questions and write a paragraph using evidence from the sources.
Week 3	KJL6	Teach the Native Land Act as the precursor of the apartheid pattern. Learners write an essay on the Act with an introduction, a line of argument and a conclusion linked to the question.
Week 4	TNK9	Teach a revision for source-based questions: analysing sources, the phrasing of level 1, 2 and 3 questions, the approach to source-based questions and paragraph writing. Learners work through past papers.
Week 5	XLMD	Teach a revision for essay questions: analysing the question, an introduction linked to the question, using relevant evidence to develop a line of argument and a conclusion. Learners write practice essays.
Weeks 6-10	7694	Task 7: final examination, one 3-hour paper (150 marks). Learners answer three questions: an essay (50), a source-based question (50) and either (50) on colonial expansion, the South African War and Union, and the Native Land Act.
