Week	ATP code	What must be covered
Week 1	HYAD	Learners listen to an informative text, noting presentation, language use, tempo and voice projection, then choose, plan and present a story. Learners read sections of the short story aloud with enunciation and pace.
Week 2	3RTC	Teach the short story's character, dialogue, plot, conflict, setting and theme, and a poem's internal and external structure. Learners write a short story with correct format and cohesion, following the writing process.
Week 3	7NF3	Learners take part in a discussion on the project: define research, create eight to ten research questions and note the instructions and stages. Introduce a drama or play: character, action, dialogue, plot, conflict and theme.
Week 4	N9K4	Learners read for information on the chosen topic and genre and select research to bring to school, organising it with graphic organisers, mind maps or infographics. Task 6, Creative Writing Project Stage 1: Research, 20 marks.
Week 5	CMR6	Teach a group discussion on the literature project covering methodology, purpose, approach and expectations. Learners read for information on the layout of the different project topics and items.
Week 6	F64C	Teach a revision of the genres and text types covered in Terms 1 and 2. Learners write up the project with correct format, organised content, paragraph conventions and cohesion. Task 6 Stage 2: Writing, 30 marks.
Week 7	NCMA	Learners prepare the oral presentation of the project topic, and listen to and discuss current news from newspapers and magazines, noting tone, pace, intonation and persuasive language. Introduce the project rubrics.
Week 8	TLXE	Learners read visual and written texts, making predictions and inferring meaning, then write summary and presentation notes for the oral component. Task 7: Oral presentation of the project, 20 marks, concluded in Term 4.
Week 9	EPE9	Learners watch and discuss a visual, audio-visual or multimedia text, identifying main and supporting ideas and persuasive techniques, and present the project orally with attention to pronunciation, body language and resources.
Week 10	YQLW	Learners read a diary entry for format, purpose and cohesion, then write a diary entry on the multimedia text. Task 8: Response to Texts, 30 marks: poem 10, drama or novel 10, short stories or folklore 10.
