Week	ATP code	What must be covered
Week 1	NLDZ	Conduct the standardised baseline assessment over the first three days and capture the data. Then read aloud an article on a brochure, organise information coherently and discuss the brochure's features and diction.
Week 2	63WP	Read a brochure for its format, target audience, layout, language and purpose, and study poetry: internal and external structure, figurative meaning, mood and theme. Write and design a brochure using process writing.
Week 3	Y6WT	Listen to and discuss a multimedia text on creating an email, activating background knowledge, determining purpose and taking notes. Record main and supporting ideas by note-making, summarising and paraphrasing.
Week 4	WAY5	Read an email for comprehension by skimming, scanning and intensive reading, noting purpose, target group and the impact of font and headings. Study folklore features and write an email in the correct format and style.
Week 5	TH96	Lead a group discussion on the novel, brainstorm and sequence main ideas, and do listening comprehension in preparation for summary writing. Discuss the youth novel's character, plot, conflict, setting and theme.
Week 6	UCE7	Teach the principles of summary writing and pre-reading strategies such as text features and parts of a book. Write a narrative or reflective essay using process writing. Task 2: Writing, essay, 30 marks.
Week 7	ZZHW	Prepare an oral on a newspaper article, investigative report or editorial: research the topic, organise material with examples and prepare an effective introduction and conclusion. Read such texts for key features.
Week 8	ANJ9	Apply reading strategies including summarising, inferring meaning and identifying manipulative language, then write a magazine article, investigative report or editorial. Task 3: Response to Texts, 60 marks.
Week 9	2A69	Listen to a prepared speech by a former president or influential person and discuss its features and language use. Discuss the folktale, retell sections and practise turn-taking and defending a position.
Week 10	VZYZ	Read a speech for comprehension, analysing emotive language, the introduction and conclusion, and how language shapes values. Write your own speech using process writing, with paragraph conventions and formal style.
