Week	ATP code	What must be covered
Week 1	7VPJ	Listen to an informative text, noting presentation, language use, tempo and voice projection, then choose, plan and present a story. Do prepared reading aloud of sections of the short story, with enunciation and pace.
Week 2	QDEJ	Study the short story's character, dialogue, plot, conflict, setting and theme, and a poem's internal and external structure. Write your own short story with correct format and cohesion, following the writing process.
Week 3	RZ6R	Take part in a discussion on the project: define research, create eight to ten research questions and note the instructions and stages. Study a drama or play: character, action, dialogue, plot, conflict and theme.
Week 4	3AZY	Read for information on the chosen topic and genre and select research to bring to school. Organise it with graphic organisers, mind maps or infographics. Task 6, Creative Writing Project Stage 1: Research, 20 marks.
Week 5	9QF4	Hold a teacher-led group discussion on the literature project covering methodology, purpose, approach and expectations, and read for information on the layout of the different project topics and items.
Week 6	5RZT	Revise the genres and text types covered in Terms 1 and 2, then write up the project with correct format, organised content, paragraph conventions and cohesion. Task 6 Stage 2: Writing, 30 marks.
Week 7	Z542	Prepare the oral presentation of the project topic, and listen to and discuss current news from newspapers and magazines, noting tone, pace, intonation and persuasive language. Study the project rubrics.
Week 8	SW97	Read visual and written texts, making predictions and inferring meaning, then write summary and presentation notes for the oral component. Task 7: Oral presentation of the project, 20 marks, concluded in Term 4.
Week 9	L7NK	Watch and discuss a visual, audio-visual or multimedia text, identifying main and supporting ideas and persuasive techniques, and present the project orally with attention to pronunciation, body language and resources.
Week 10	QMV3	Read a diary entry for format, purpose and cohesion, then write your own on the multimedia text. Task 8: Response to Texts, 30 marks: poem 10, drama or novel 10, short stories or folklore 10.
