Week	ATP code	What must be covered
Week 1	3U9H	Do listening comprehension on instructions and directions, taking notes and answering questions, then practise giving directions using the imperative and the second person, referring to distance and landmarks.
Week 2	RNWJ	Read information texts with visuals such as maps, graphs and infographics, and a short story for its key features. Write an instructional text. Task 7, the project oral, 20 marks, is completed by the end of this term.
Week 3	KFHG	Listen to a panel discussing current news, noting tone, pace, intonation, persuasive language and body language, and do prepared or unprepared reading aloud of a newspaper article, observing punctuation for effect.
Week 4	WGRH	Read newspaper and magazine articles and written speeches for main ideas, facts, opinions and figures of speech, and read a drama for plot, characterisation and dramatic irony. Write a newspaper article.
Week 5	ALW7	Do an oral on filling out a questionnaire or form: research the topic, organise material with examples and prepare an effective introduction and conclusion. Do listening comprehension on a form and take notes.
Week 6	CV6X	Read a questionnaire or form for key features, format and language use, and study a poem's structure, figurative meaning, mood and theme. Task 9: Writing, transactional, 10 marks, before the end-of-year examination.
Week 7	MJAQ	Prepare for the examination in speaking and listening: conversation, panel discussion, unprepared speech and listening comprehension. Revise word level and sentence level work.
Week 8	BFX5	Prepare for the examination in reading and writing: comprehension, summary, visual literacy, poetry, short story, drama, essays and transactional texts. Revise word meaning, punctuation and spelling.
Week 9	KEBC	The end-of-the-year examination begins. Task 10, Response to Texts, Paper 2, 60 marks: Question 1 is a literary or non-literary text for 20 marks and Question 2 is a visual text for 10 marks.
Week 10	FBAY	The end-of-the-year examination continues. Question 3 is a summary for 10 marks and Question 4 is language structures and conventions for 20 marks, completing the 60-mark Paper 2.
