Week	ATP code	What must be covered
Week 1	6YM7	Do listening comprehension from the novel and read aloud an extract, teaching its features and conventions and using textual, punctuation and graphic cues to work out unfamiliar words. Study character, plot and setting.
Week 2	2Q5V	Apply comprehension strategies: purpose and target group, inference, fact against opinion and implied meaning. Write a summary of one chapter and a descriptive essay on the novel, following the writing process.
Week 3	KDD5	Listen to a dialogue based on a social issue, take notes and study language and power, tone and mood. Examine a recorded speech on a social issue for its key features, language use, format and role players.
Week 4	7X3Q	Study poetry: figures of speech, rhyme, rhythm, stanzas, typography, figurative meaning, mood and theme. Write a dialogue with correct format, order and cohesion. Task 1: Oral, reading aloud, 20 marks.
Week 5	H37R	Do listening comprehension on a non-fictional text such as a newspaper article, then hold a group or panel discussion explaining the author's point of view with appropriate language, style and register.
Week 6	QU2R	Read a newspaper article for comprehension, distinguishing fact from opinion and summarising, and study folktales. Write a review of the article with correct format, paragraph conventions, style, tone and register.
Week 7	VU25	Watch an advertisement and discuss tone, pacing, emotive and manipulative language, font size, body language and the AIDA principles, then present orally on it, recording main and supporting ideas by making notes.
Week 8	5RWU	Read a visual or multimedia text such as an advertisement or poster, inferring meaning and noting how visuals strengthen the message. Design one. Task 4: Writing, transactional, 10 marks, before the June test.
Week 9	MLN6	Task 5, the June controlled test: Response to Texts, 60 marks. Question 1 is a literary or non-literary text for 20 marks and Question 2 is a visual text for 10 marks.
Week 10	DTNU	The June controlled test continues. Question 3 is a summary for 10 marks and Question 4 is language structures and conventions for 20 marks, completing the 60-mark paper.
