WEEKLY COVERAGE

One ATP code per week

Week	ATP code	What must be covered
Week 1	K4CH	Learners complete the standardised baseline assessment over the first three days. Learners then listen to an article from a brochure read aloud, organise its information and discuss the brochure's features and diction.
Week 2	HLKN	Learners read a brochure for format, target audience, layout, language and purpose. Introduce poetry: internal and external structure, figurative meaning, mood and theme. Learners write and design a brochure using process writing.
Week 3	W74T	Learners listen to a multimedia text on creating an email, then record main and supporting ideas by note-making, summarising and paraphrasing. Task 1 Oral (Reading Aloud, 20 marks) starts this term and is completed in Term 2.
Week 4	CRX3	Learners read an email for comprehension by skimming, scanning and intensive reading, noting purpose, target group and the impact of fonts. Introduce folklore features. Learners write an email in the correct format and style.
Week 5	JJNY	Teach a group discussion on the novel: learners brainstorm and sequence main ideas and do listening comprehension in preparation for summary writing. Introduce the youth novel's character, plot, conflict, setting and theme.
Week 6	Y9HJ	Teach the principles of summary writing and pre-reading strategies such as text features and parts of a book. Learners write a narrative or reflective essay using process writing. Task 2: Writing, essay, 30 marks.
Week 7	WXAL	Learners prepare an oral on a newspaper article, investigative report or editorial: research the topic, organise material with examples and prepare an introduction and conclusion. Learners read such texts for key features.
Week 8	D7QY	Learners apply reading strategies including summarising, inferring meaning and identifying manipulative language, then write a magazine article, investigative report or editorial. Task 3: Response to Texts, 60 marks.
Week 9	JCLK	Learners listen to a prepared speech by a former president or influential person and discuss its features and language use. Learners discuss the folktale, retell sections and practise turn-taking and defending a position.
Week 10	QPA7	Learners read a speech for comprehension, analysing emotive language, the introduction and conclusion, and how language shapes values. Learners write a speech using process writing, with paragraph conventions and formal style.
